wember 22, 1907.

EASTERN KENTUCKY.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Volume VII.

Jackson, Kentucky, Friday, A

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A Big Stock of Fall Goods Which we are using to sell at

Per Cent Discount.

With the atmost care we have chosen our big stock of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children for Ran and Winter wear. Style, workmanship, fabric, wearing points, all have been considered. The clothes you bay at this store will make good in service, and satisfy you in every way that there are none better made ready-to-wear or tailored to measure. You can see satisfactory evidence of this before purchasing, by crit.cally camining any of the new Fall Models we show in Full Sacks of Single and Double-breasted Style for Men and Young Men and Children. Fall Overcoats and Raincoats in all approved styles. Fall and Derby Soft Hats.

LADIES, NEW FALL SUITS ARE HERE

A truly beautiful gathering of the Fall and Winter Models in Suits. Designs, materials, workmanship, fit and quality could not be bettered. We have made careful selections in Ladies and Misses' Cloaks, in Black Blue, Gray, Castor and other colors. The prettiest line of Ladies and Misses' Skirts ever in Jackson in all the new weaves and colors, and in all the most approved styles are on display here. Ask to see our beautiful Fall line of Dress Goods, Silks, Flannels (all colors), Laces, Trimmings and Ribbons, Gloves, Handkerchiefs Underwear, Embroideries, Hosiery, Fancy Belts, Back and Side Combs, all this season's goods, at 15 per cent discount. Mothers, ask to see our line of Infants garments.

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN MILLINERY.

We are showing a beautiful line of ready to wear and Trimmed Hats. We give you style, beauty and individuality for a very small amount of money. All trimmed with the daintiest of trimmings.

In Underwear and for Men, Women and Children Outing Cloth, Carpets, Mattings, Oil Cloths and Rugs, Trunks, Suit Cases, Grips, Valises Comforts and Blankets, Mens' and Boys' Flannel Shirts, we offer advantages that cannot be had elsewhere. Our Fall Shoe stock is now in. Almost every size and shape conceivable. Low prices. Come and see this elegant stock. We have too many goods and are going to sell them at 15 per cent discount.

Euster & Isaacs

J. SAMUEL HEAD, Jr., Cashier. FLOYD DAY, Pres. F. P. CRAWFORD, Vice Pres.

M. P. DAVIS, Acting Cashier. W. S. HOPPER, Ass't Cash,

OUR BANKING METHODS ARE SATISFACTORY

To a large and growing clientile. If you are are not already in this number, why not open an account now? when the accident happened. Call in and talk the subject over with us. A call will entail no obilgation. Won't you try and see?

PAIDUP CAPITAL and SURPLUS $27,350.00

JACKSON DEPOSIT BANK,

Jackson, Kentucky. **************

THE Southern R'y. OFFERS VERY LOW ROUND-TRIP Homeseekers' Rates

To Arkansas. Indian Territory.

Louisiana, Oklahoma & Texas.

Tickets on sale the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Apply to any Southern Ry. Agent, or write A. R. COOK, D. P. A. B. S. YENT, T. P. A. LOUISVILLE, KY.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The Breathitt County News has now the largest circulation of any paper in Eastern Kentucky. Merchants and business men are invited to take advantage of this splendid advertising medium. If you have never advertised with us give us a chance. If you make your appeal for trade through The News it will reach the largest and most intelligent class of buyers in this community. Your ads will be read by them and they will become your customers. Try it and see. 5225252525252525252525

C. Oaks, of Elkatawa, was here on business Monday.

Hon. G. W. Sewell left Sunday on a business trip to Hazard.

A. C. Russell, of Clay Hole, was here Monday on business.

J. E. Rogers, of Ammie, Clay county, was a caller at The News office last Saturday.

John Wyatt, of Elkatawa, has purchased of Mary Robbins her farm near that place.

Mrs. Laura Sewell was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strong on Frozen last week.

Mrs. W. S. Daniel, of Proctor, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Hammons, Saturday and June Warford Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Blake and Mrs. T. T. Cope were visiting the family of A. L. Hagins at Robbins Sun

The finest assortment of solid gold rings and watches ever brought to Jackson at the S. D. Fleenor Jenciry Store.

W. E. Bryant whf has been neck, is able to be out again.

James L. Stidham returned Friday from Los. Angeles, Cal., where he had been visiting his brother for the past four weeks.

Rev. Alex Patterson, of Beattyville, was in Jackson last week He went from here to Camp Christy re he held services. He will hold regular monthly meetings in Jackson this winter.

Hubert Burke and Nelson Smith were knocked off the new railroad bridge, last week, which is being built at Heidelburg, Lee county, across the Kentucky river. They were unloading a car of timber Smith was not hurt so bad.

The Death Roll.

Miss Julia, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Samuel Williams, of Robbins, was burned to death by her clothes catching on fire while she was washing last Thursday a week ago. She was dead when Clarence Gabbard, aged eight years, son of Isaac Gabbard, of Puncheon Camp, died Tuesday, November 5, of consumption. The remains were buried in the family grave yard at Henry Gabbard's.

Hargis Suit Called.

In the circuit court at Lexingdamage suit of Thomas P. Cardwell, of Jackson, against James Callahan was set for trial Decem-Smith and John Abner fired the the mixture to get this relief. shots that killed Cox, and that they Hargis brothers and Callahan.

NOTICE.

I have taken up on my premises disorders of Rheumatism.

Jackson, Ky. so prefer,

NOTICE.

All parties who bought tr from the Highland Nursery, nessee, are hereby notified to c at once and receive same and si costs and further trouble. Tr can be found at the L. & E. Hote J. B. LORING & SON, Props.

Clean Up for the Holiday And buy your soap and scourin powder from the Ladies' Aid Se ciety of the Christian churci They have the Larkin produc for sale. All kinds of soaps washing powders, perfumes, toile water etc. Call up Mrs. O. Pollard and ask about what w want. If we have not got it s will take your order.

NOTICE.

I have posted my land for ting their stock to run at lat same. The land is situal Quicksand Creek, in Buthitt county, and is known as the, Bottom farm, also the land Seth Back now lives, ad

November 22, 1907.

guests of David Lay Sunday.

O. B. Garrett and wife

R. M. Garrett at Irving Sa glay! Miss Eliza B. Walton visid at A. B. Garrett's last Thursd Franch last Friday.

mule colts. He says he is going

Leonard Lay and Miss Adia Rich- Linciples and policies that have Richardson Sunday.

for the same price.

Asks Us to Print it.

each meal and at bedtime:

saparilla, three ounces.

which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only th

THE Jr. O. U. A. M. Principles. CANNEL CITY, KY., Nov. 12' 07.

Having received the columns of The Breathitt County News, for which I am very thankful, to present before its many readers the objects and aims of the Jr. O. U. A. M., I will begin with this issue and continue from time to time. The Jr. O. U. A. M. is the largest patriotic, beneficial and fraternal organization in America, strictly non-partisan and non-sectarian, blended that only the deep stuchurch. For some unaccountable easons the objects and principles of the order are misunderstood by great many of our best citizens. This being the case it is highly necessary that a campaign of edupurpose of prohibiting people from cation be entered into by its mem-hunting or trespassing or permit, bers in order to enlighten every bers in order to enlighten every relligent citizen in our fair land asto just what our principles are and to what extent we are endeavoring to carry them out.

No true, loyal American, irre-Seth Back now lives, addition spective of surroundings or belief, the above. This notice will be used be ashamed to advocate the this date. Cassander Box II A M. U. A. M., since they are God's highest and noblest ideals of NOLAND, ESTILL COUTY imerican manhood and citizenenship, and at all times do only Willis Winkler and wife we hat which is right to uphold the nests of David Lay Sunda.

Jeff Garrett and wife right our conduct and deliberafor by a profound belief in the favor of an Almighty God, and favor of protecting the United states of America from any forign foe, believing in the restric-A. B. Garrett's last Thursd.

Mrs. Mary Grant Wayn and fug, as we do, that immigration brings with it anarchy, disloyalty, and is antagonistic to the Ameri-Charley Michael's wife services raligious and educational institutions. One of the chief objected to live but, few day, the kindre patriotic organizations, is the dismination among its memthe ablic generally of a more perfect knowledge of the history, Huston Walton and family and fom of government, underlying ardson were guests of Witter made the United States not only a great world for power, but the Henry McGeorge and Mss great exampler of freedom and Mary Bett Dalton were married liberty. The possession of such November 14. The bride is a knowledge is imperatively neces- migration as to exclude the vicious, daughter of A. R. Dalton, of for those who would take a Panola. Peading part in safeguarding Amercorn here for $2.75 a barrel. Nat. moulding public opinion in union nie Warford also sold her corn on therewith. The teacher must leader of the blind. Society is organized for the bene-To relieve the worst forms f fit of its members. Governments The first principles of the Jr. O. Rheumatism, take a teaspoonal exist, or should exist, solely for U. A. M. is to maintain and proof the following mixture fter the good of the governed. What mote the interest of Americans is the State? Louis XIV of France, and shield them from the depress-Fluid Extract Dandelion, me answered the question by saying, ing effect of foreign competition. half ounce; Compound Kargo, "The State-I am the State." The one ounce; Compound Syrup Sar French Revolution, however, to all immigrants who desire to proved to his unfortunate grand- better their condition and become These harmless ingredients carson, Louis XVI, that the grand a part and parcel of our nationalbe obtained from our home drug monarch had been mistaken, and ity, but we have not one foot of gist, and are easily mixed by shak that the people, not the king, con- American soil for the anarchist, ing them well in a bottle. Relie stituted the State. The stream of the socialist, or for any one who is generally felt from the first few a fountain can not naturally rise is not willing to bow allegiance higher than its source, so it is and obedience to our free Ameri-This prescription, states a well with States. A State is but the can institutions and our democratic known authority in a Clevelan organized aggregate of all its form of government. We guarmorning paper, forces the clogged citizens and the principles and antee to all men of all nationaliup, inactive kidneys to filter and policies in accordance with which ties the liberty of worshiping God strain from the blood the poison its government is carried on are according to the dictates of their

ington, Monday, the $100,000 ous waste matter and uric acid but the sum total of the principles own conscience and would give and policies in which its citizens every assistance to protect all in believe, and the good and bad im- the exercise of this liberty, but Hargis, Elbert Hargis and Ed most painful and torturous disease pulses by which they are educated we object to the interference of but dangerous to life, this simply in their relations with each other. any church, no matter under what ber 7. Cardwell, guardian for the receipe will no doubt be great! The personel of the citizenship of name it may exist, in the temporal Cox heirs, and administrator of valued by many sufferers here the State determines the character affairs of our law making departthe Cox estate, alleges that John home, who should at once prepar of its government. Applying ment or free and charitable instithese fundamental concepts of tutions. In the strictest sense we It is said that a person who civics to the study of our country are a national political organizawere hired to kill Cox by the two would take this prescription regt and its problems, we are led to tion, but we oppose with unanilarly, a dose or two daily, or even inquire as to the foundation of our nity the slightest taint of partiana few times a week, would never studies; what peculiarities there ship. "Our Country" is our motto have serious Kidney or Urinay are, if any, in the people of the and we keep this motto steadily United States; that differentiates before us. one large red cow, with white Cut this out and preserve them from the people that go to In my next I will take a study face. She is about ten or twelve Good Rheumatism prescriptions make up the population of the of the immigration and its evils years old, and has high horns. which really relieves are scarce i- other great powers of christen- from the birth of our country up She came to my premises about deed, and when you need it, you dom, and one, if not the chief, to the present.

May 1. Owner can have her by want it badly. Our druggists here of such differences, is found in the I am your obedient servant, by proving her and paying for say they will either supply there composite character of the popular her keep and for this advertise-ingredients or make the mixture lation of the United States, Engment.

James Butler, ready to take, if any of our read's land, France, Germany, Italy and Parket Brothers, at the FOLLYSTIONS. Jother European nations have each Reed Hotel, when in Lexington.

in the distant past received con- THE POET'S CORNER. tributions of population from Standing for American many different sources, but it is so far back that for centuries they have been more or less homogeneous intities, constantly becoming I left the town when summer days more closely knit together by ties of consanguinity, and receiving Left bustling cares where man to little or no accretion to their population from foreign sources. Take, for example, England, Britian, Angle, Celt, Saxon, Norwegian, Dane and Norman. Each have contributed their successive share of population, customs, laws, etc, but for centuries these influences have been so inextricably dent of medieval and early history and archology can unravel the tangled skein.

Long, long ago they became Englishmen and only here and there do we find in later years a few isolated individuals becoming ingrafted upon the English stock. The United States, however, presents an entirely different condition. The population of the United States may be primarily divided into two great classes—the native born and the foreign born-with an intermediate and transitional class, composed of the native born children of foreign born parents. Out to the land where freedom Here, then, lies one of the greatest problems with which the statesmen of this country are called upon to deal with. What shall be the policy of the United States toward immigration? Shall it leave the problem alone to solve itself or restrict immigration or alto- Hope built on hope and joy sucgether prohibit it? First of all, let us get a proper prespective. In the last analysis we are all immigrants or descendants of immigrants, no matter whether we ar- When The Twilight Berive on the Lusitana or our ancestors came on the Mayflower. None of us can therefore, very consistently demand that the bars be When the twilight begins to fall, put up to keep out all immigrants. ter without regulation would be While the old folks chant an evento tend his crop with mules and bers, and through them among dangerous, if not disastrous immigrants, like Jeremiah's figs are, some good, very good, others bad, very bad.

The problem, therefore, that presents itself for solution is this: How shall we as a nation so regulate the admission of foreign im- But must be holy new. diseased and criminal and at the same time work no injustice to Millard Winkler has sold his ican institutions and ideals and to the worthy and deserving, and maintain the reputation of the United States as the haven of Crooked Creek to W. C. Cote; know before he is competent to refuge for those, who, having the teach, else shall he be but a blind inheritant love of liberty in their hearts, seek to escape the tyranny and oppression of the Old World.

Number 5

AUTUMN.

[CONTRIBUTED.]

had waned, man complained:

Left surging crowds where joy and sorrows meet,

Out to a country place I sought retreat. The summer days had gone and autumn's leaves Were turning brown and gold like bearded sheaves; Light winds were whispering sweet retiring lays; Attuned to holy cords in fitting praise. The hosts of heaven and all flocks of earth.

Conspired as one in peans of love and mirth:

The song of birds, the insect's restless hum. The low of herds and droves were not o'ercome. Thus to these country scenes I sought retreat: Left joys and cares in surging crowds to meet: reigns supreme.

Where pains depart and burdens end in dream.

Sublime enjoyment, fields where nature tends! Ecstatic tryst where love to God ascends:

ceeding joy. Sweet wings of peace our flitting hours employ. K. K.

gins to Fall.

ing song.

CHORUS.

Fathers and mothers, your duties are right, Your instruction must be true: Your counsel must not be a holy fright.

They soon will close their eyes in Upon their bed of rest. They pass the night as humble

That dwell in the bosom of the Nature hath prepared them water And food for their weary soul; Shelter for the night's quarter. A God to guard them wer'e told.

Onward! onward! we percieve,

Life is but a clond-Then let us all be ready to achieve And be projected by a shroud. H. A. Miller, Ned, Ky.

EVOLUTION.

I ate me a weish rabbit
In the night last past;
I ate me a weish rabbit
Whereby to stay my fast;
Simply a weish rabbit,
A harmless, armless thing,
With not a leg to stand on,
Nor voice to speak or sing.

I ate me a welsh rabbit
Then hied myself away
To bed and dreams and wishing
'Twere longer yet till day;
Simply a welsh rabbit,
A wileless, guileless beast
That hath no other mission
Than serving for a feast.

I ate a weish rabbit. I ate a weish rabbit,
Gadzooks! I thought it so;
But after I had gone to sleep
How quickly it did grow
Into the strangest creatures—
Into the mares of night,
Into the gibberish monkeys,
Into the shapes that fright,
Into the ringtalled roosters,
Into the jabberwocks,
Into the jangling jaguars.

I ate me a welsh rabbit
In the night last past;
I ate me a welsh rabbit
Whereby to stay my fast;
Simply a welsh rabbit—
How could there possibly b

"I hear he refused to take chlorofo when he was operated our